This workshop covers the importance of achieving and maintaining quality of life for dogs in shelters. Training, behavior modification programs, and mental, behavioral and emotional stimulation for dogs will be covered. We will explore some fun and easy ways to train adoptable dogs so they can put their best paw forward. Shelter dogs will be used for demonstration.

3:45 pm – 5 pm GOING THE EXTRA SMILE: CUSTOMER SERVICE AT THE CORE OF ANIMAL WELFARE

Emily Garman

We care for animals in our field, but ultimately, we serve people. Nothing we do would be possible without our donors, volunteers, adopters and people in our community who support our work. Like it or not, our success (the number of animals we can help) hinges on our level of customer service. This session explores what customer service means in animal welfare and how your staff and volunteers can help every client with whom they come into contact but still say "no" respectfully when necessary.

Our Speakers

MARY SAMPLES, PETCO

Mary is the national adoption program manager covering the West Coast, Northwest, and Southwest and Alaska and Hawaii for Petco for the past two years. Mary's love for animals goes back to childhood. She knew she wanted to work in the animal industry one way or another. Mary has been with Petco for over four years. She started her Petco career in the animal care and education department, working under the vice president of veterinary medicine, Dr. Tom Edling. Gaining extensive knowledge of Petco standards for animal care, she was able to transition to the Think Adoption First team, working with Lori Morton-Feazell, the director of animal care, education and compliance. Mary rescued her first pet, Jake, a yellow Lab, about nine years ago. Since she has been on the Think Adoption First team, her family has grown. She has adopted a bearded dragon, Drago, and a kitten, Charlie. "I am truly blessed to be a part of an amazing company with the mission to think adoption first and reduce euthanasia," Mary says.

Melissa is a shelter outreach specialist for Petfinder. She has over seven years of volunteer experience, including writing press releases and attending meet-and-greet events on behalf of the Mid-Atlantic Great Dane Rescue League, Inc., and hands-on shelter experience at the MDSPCA. She presents on next-generation fundraising, social media and mega-adoption events all over the world. In 2011 she traveled to Riga, Latvia, to present at the Dogs Trust European Summit and to the US Virgin Islands to consult with individual shelters. She received the 2010 Advocate in Action Award from the Oklahoma Alliance for Animals for her work in using social media to pass puppy mill legislation in Oklahoma; she helped Texas organizations do the same in 2011.
